The Evening Post.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Saturday, July 5th, 1873.

The Fourth.

The day was very generally observed here. Most of the stores were closed, so that every one so inclined had an opportunity for recreation, and well did they improve it.

The city never looked so quiet and in fact desolate. Every available horse had been pressed into service, so that at times, not a vehicle could be seen in any direction. A stillness more profound than on the Sabbath day prevailed with but an occasional small report showing that there were some boys still in the city. They were very few, however, and far between.

Companies A and B, of the Wilmington Rifle Guards, appeared on parade and made a remarkably fine appearance. They formed in the morning at the City Hall and marched down Princess to Front, from thence to Market, up Market to Fourth and thence out to Hilton, where the day was spent in an appropriate manner. Capt. J. S. W. Eagles was in command.

The excursion on the Waccamaw was a success. There must have been at least four hundred souls on her, and they appeared to enjoy themselves to the full amount.

The shipping generally, and many of the public buildings, displayed the national ensign, which, at times, was the only reminder that this was "the day we celebrate," and not Sunday.

The principal feature of the day was the regatta at Wrightsville Sound, and as we had a reporter there we will let him tell the story in his own words in another column. As a whole, the day was a success, and although we had to dispense with the customary displays of fire works, we shall long remember this as one of the most quiet, comfortable and satisfactory days in many years.

The Nation has passed its 97th birthday, and instead of being weak and decrepit it stands firm and self-reliant in the full freshness of youth. The day has generally, since the war, been the occasion among Southern editors for writing bitter articles against the Government, and mourning over the "lost cause." Year by year, however, we have noticed less of this business, much to our delight, until now much of the accustomed diatribes have disappeared. The Star of this city has got along so far as to claim "the fourth" as its own peculiar Southern institution, and if this be so we sincerely sympathize with the millions of small boys in the North who have expended tons of powder during the past thirty-six hours, in the fond belief that they owned a portion of the day. We presume our neighbor is willing we should own it with him, and we assure him we are very glad to have him claim a portion of it. Fourth of July in this city has always been among the saddest days of our Wilmington experience, and the present very general observance of the day is most gratifying. It certainly manifests a growing feeling of unity, and a consciousness of being actually a part of the government, which we rejoice to see. We hope that by next year we will be far enough advanced in liberality and patriotism to have an official public celebration.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

Seventy five cotton cases are yet pending in the court of claims for cotton seized by the government.

Commander Thomas H. Harris was on Wednesday recommended by the Naval Examining Board for promotion.

Counsel Perry presented the Attorney General with a copy of the injunction laid against the Union Pacific railroad by the Hartford (Conn.) Circuit Court on the 29th ult.

The revenue steamer Hamilton is ordered to Philadelphia for duty. Her cruising grounds will extend from Great Egg Harbor to Chincoteague, and including Delaware river and bay.

Notice is given from the Light House Board, Treasury Department, that on and after July 1, 1873, a light will be exhibited from the brick tower recently erected on the north shore of Presque Isle, Erie, Pa.

It is stated at the War Department that the session of the commission appointed to try the Modoc Indians will commence shortly after the 4th of July. It is also said that the indications are that pressure is to be made upon the President for the purpose of interceding in behalf of these Modoc Indians, and that influence to that end has already been sought.

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

Recorder Hackett, in New York, after having carefully considered the points raised by counsel in the case of William J. Sharkey, convicted of the murder of Robert S. Dunn, decided not to grant the prisoner a new trial. Sharkey will be sentenced to death when the Recorder's denial is made public from the bench.

In the Court of General Sessions at New York, Wednesday morning, before Recorder Hackett, Frank Gillen, who stabbed his wife to death on the 15th of June, was arraigned on the charge of murder in the first degree. He pleaded guilty to murder in the second degree, and Recorder Hackett sentenced him to imprisonment for life with hard labor.

Reports have been received in New York that Cespedes has resigned the presidency of the Cuban Republic, and has been succeeded by Salvador Cisneros, president of the Chamber of Representatives. His resignation is said to be principally due to public disapprobation of his acts favoring his brother-in-law, General Manuel Quesada.

A gentleman who has just arrived in St. Louis from Fort Sill, Indian Territory, says the Kiowa and Cheyenne Indians, who recently left their reservations, are returning. They had been out to have their annual medicine dance. Hundreds of squaws, captured by Col. MacKenzie while off their reservation, and who were imprisoned at Fort Canby, Texas, were returned to their tribe three weeks ago.

Private advices have been received at Leavenworth from the expedition organized and sent out under Lieutenant Colonel Ruffner, chief engineer of the Department of the Missouri, to explore the country between the Rio Grande and San Juan rivers, and the mineral region in the vicinity of the Animus Park, in the Ute country. The company are making fine progress, and accomplishing all that was anticipated. On the 7th and 8th of June they encountered a snow storm in the mountains at the head of the Rio Grande, and had to shovel their road for eight miles in the snow, in the pass to the Western slope. On the 12th ultimo they were in Animus Park recruiting their animals.

The Parsons Sun, extra, contains the following particulars of another fearful tornado in Neosho county. It struck Galeburg, a station on the Missouri, Kansas, and Texas railroad, eleven miles from there, about 9:30 P. M. on Tuesday. The storm was a fearful one. The heavens were one sheet of flame, and there was a terrible burst of wind and rain. The tornado came from the southwest, and first struck the stone house of Mr. Giddings, half a mile south of Galeburg, blowing it down, and burying Mrs. Giddings and three children in the ruins. The children were instantly killed. Mrs. Giddings was seriously injured. The gale next struck Mr. Rader's house, which was blown down. He was seriously and his wife was fatally injured. Two other houses were blown from their foundation. The tornado moved in a narrow belt, and swept everything in its track, houses, fences, and crops, clean as a mower's scythe. At Parsons, three houses were struck by lightning, but no serious damage was done. The rain came down in torrents all night, and much damage was done to the wheat and corn crops.

At the close of the Walworth trial Wednesday, Judge Davis delivered his charge to the jury at length, and said: "If the jury were satisfied from the evidence that young Walworth came to New York with the intent to murder his father, then the crime was murder in the first degree; but if the crime was committed in a sudden manner, in an instant, then it was murder in the second degree." The judge also charged that the jury should not regard the fear which the prisoner entertained for the life of his mother, as they could not be regarded as any justification of his crime. They should regard only those facts which were personal. The law did not make it a justification when the killing was done through fear that the life of another was in danger. They could, however, consider whether the fear that his mother's life was in danger did not give point to the fear which he entertained for his own life on the morning of the 3d of June. At the conclusion of the judge's charge, the jury retired, and after an absence of three hours, returned at 8:10 P. M., with a verdict of "Guilty of murder in the second degree." Sentence was postponed until to-day. [See telegraphic column.]

Much comment has been made upon the arrangements in the new postal law, whereby the Postoffice Department is enabled to transmit its supplies to 30,000 other postoffices free of charge, while all other Departments are obliged to prepay all mail matter by stamps.

THE ROAD to the Cemetery is perfectly the suffering entailed by the long, weary tramp through deep hot sand, can be better imagined than described.

At a meeting of the Republican County Executive Committee held this day, the following resolutions were adopted, to-wit:
Resolved, That the Secretary be instructed to notify the members of the County Committee in the several townships in the county, to call together the voters of the several townships on Tuesday, July 15th at 12 o'clock M., and the voters of Wilmington township at 8½ o'clock P. M., at their respective polling places for the purpose of making nominations for the township officers.
Resolved, That the call be made through the columns of the EVENING POST.
The attention of the several members of the Committee is called to the above resolutions.

INFANTICIDE.—Yesterday, moving the citizens of the quiet town of Goldsboro' were in a fever of excitement over the killing of a child aged 5 months.
The particulars, as near as we could learn them, were as follows: About three weeks ago Joe Adams entered the room of Fannie Brent, during her absence, and stole jewelry and money to the amount of three dollars. Some of the neighbors saw Adams coming out of the house, and informed Fannie Brent of the fact, who immediately went to Adams and threatened to have him arrested if he did not give her the money, etc., he had stolen. Adams promised to return them, whereupon Fannie told him she would not have him arrested.
During the time that elapsed between the theft and the infanticide, the parties had seen each other frequently, but had never had any words until Thursday evening last, when Adams picked up a board and struck Fannie on the left shoulder, hitting the baby, which the mother was holding in her left arm, in the middle of its back, knocking it a distance of about ten feet. As soon as Joe saw what he had done, he ran off and secreted himself. The police were informed of the murder, and succeeded in arresting Adams, who was placed in jail. An inquest was held over the body of the child yesterday afternoon, and a verdict was rendered according to the facts above stated.

THE TOWN CRIER.
—Mild.
—Dog days most here.
—We don't want to sail in a yacht race.
—The police made 21 arrests last week.
—His Honor the Mayor is quite ill
to-day.
—In the 97th year of American Independence.
—The cool air yesterday evening was very refreshing.
—Yesterday was as quiet in the city
as two Sundays.
—To-day finishes Court until next October.
—Business is already accumulating
for next Court.
—There were 191 carts in market
the past week.
—Two unfortunates were admitted to the hospital.
—Only one sinner went to the work house this week.
—Midnight tolls as we pen this little crier and Fourth of July has gone.
—Rev. Dr. Burnheim has returned and will occupy his pulpit to-morrow.
—Vegetables can now be procured in great profusion—for a consideration.
—The scorched and burned faces brought back from yesterday's regatta, are numerous.
—Who will take the initiative in some plan to raise funds for the Oxford Orphan Asylum?
—Rumor has it that many of the leading Amateurs of the city will commence rehearsals soon in front of the splendid Presbyterian church organ, for a concert for some charitable object.
—For home consumption there were slaughtered during the past week, 37 beefes, 2 hogs, 73 sheep and 5 calves.
This has no connection with a hundred thousand chickens and fish not reported though sacrificed.

THE REGATTA.—The first Regatta of the Carolina Yacht Club under its new organization came off at Wrightsville Sound on yesterday. The most fastidious could not have asked for a more propitious day. Early morning found every available vehicle with loads of anxious pleasure seekers on the way to Sound, and by midday the usually quiet waters and banks of Wrightsville resounded with the loud laughter and joyous shouts of the happy hearts who had left all care behind and had devoted our national holiday to aquatic sports, and to join in with the Carolina Yacht Club in celebrating the day. By twelve o'clock the waters were flecked with the white sails of the many boats that were wending their way with their loads of passengers, destined for the banks, and soon they were all there, and then the usual excitement incident to a boat race, the hoisting of the Yacht Club signals on all the boats that were entered for the race, and the putting of every thing in order, the measuring of the boats and the appointing to them their relative positions, made things very lively indeed.
Soon everything was in readiness and Commodore Frank Cassidey announced that Messrs. Wm. A. Wright, Capt. T.
C. DeRosset and Jesse J. Cassidey would act as the judges, and at five minutes before three o'clock time was called and the beautiful yachts sailed out in the following order:
1. Little Walter.
2. Rob.
3. Lelia, or Chas. S. Teal.
4. Little Sister.
5. Annie.
6. Cora and Eliza.
7. Lizie.
8. Lily.
9. Undine.
10. Qui Vive.
11. Retta.
12. Carolina.
The breeze was fine and sufficient, and from the southwest, and the course (about seven miles in distance) was from the wharf opposite the Club House, in and around buoy No. 1 at the mouth of London channel, thence back and down the main channel around buoy No. 2, near the inlet, thence back and around buoy No. 1 the second time, and down and around buoy No. 2 the second time, to the place of starting. We have never seen a fairer start, and as the fleet rushed off together, dashing away the bright waters, the enthusiasm of the crowd of spectators found vent in loud cheering and waving of handkerchiefs and hats.
On the first stretch from buoy No. 1, towards buoy No. 2, the Rob upset, and her crew got a good ducking, but she was soon righted and sailed out. The next mishap was to the Cora and Eliza, by the carrying away of her rudder, and soon after the Retta had rounded buoy
No. 2 on the first round, a slight squall struck her which carried away her main sheet, throat halliard and jib sheet, and she was forced to give up the race and returned under easy sail.
The Carolina, Little Sister, and Qui Vive were the only boats that went around the entire course in the race, and returned in the following order, having made good time, as follows:
Carolina, 1 h. 33 m. 45 sec.
Little Sister, 1 h. 34 m. 5 sec.
Qui Vive, 1 h. 38 m. 4 sec.
On the decision of the judges being announced, the entire concourse adjoined to the Club House, and Wm. A.
Wright, Esq. was called upon, who, in a few well timed remarks, delivered the prizes as follows: The first prize, an elegant silver turban, was awarded to the Carolina, and was received by Mr.
E. E. Burruss, her owner, whose bashfulness before so many ladies prevented his making any lengthy remarks. The second prize, a silver ice pitcher, was awarded to the Little Sister, and was received by Mr. Clayton Giles for Mr.
Norwood Giles, her owner, who also declined to say much, being much more at home while sailing a boat than at making speeches. The third prize, a silver drinking cup, was awarded to the Qui Vive, and was received by her owner, Mr. W. A. Wright, Jr., in a neat little speech. This cup is a Club prize, belongs to the Club, and is to be sailed for as the third prize at every annual regatta, the winner holding it for the year only.
As soon as the awarding of the prizes had been made, there was a general stampede for the main land, and soon the Club House and the banks was as lonely as ever, and so wound up, without one thing to mar the pleasure of the occasion, one of the most delightful reunions that the Carolina Yacht Club and their friends have ever had.
We were very glad to see so many ladies lending the charm of their presence to the occasion, and we hope that they may always be so.

science, being a catalogue of stars observed from the Naval Observatory, from

NEW YORK.
New York, July 5.
Two cases of cholera occurred yesterday, and both proved fatal. Reported as Asiatic cholera by the attending physicians, but the Doctors attached to the Board of Health say that both were aggravated cases of cholera morbus.
There were 25 or 30 small fires yesterday, the damages varying from $3 to $100.
John Long was arrested last night for in-tally shooting John Herring. Both are boys 17 years.
Thirty-one accidents to persons from carelessness in the use of firearms and fireworks occurred in this city yesterday, and nearly as many in Brooklyn.
John Dennis, driver of a market wagon, was found fatally beaten in his wagon at Jamaica, Long Island, yesterday, having been robbed by two negroes to whom he gave a ride on his way home from market. The people of Jamaica turned out and sent the woods yesterday for the murderers, but they have not yet been captured.
There were numerous cases of sunstroke yesterday, including several militia during the morning parade.
Frank Westworth was today sentenced to the State prison at Sing Sing at hard labor for life. Judge Davis in addressing the prisoner said he had fearful doubts whether his case did not justify his conviction for murder in the first degree. The prisoner stood the trying ordeal with firmness without moving a muscle of his features, and left the court with his mother, after the Judge had concluded.
SYRACUSE, July 5.
At a great fourth of July celebration here yesterday, Gerritt Smith, in an address, touching on the Cuban question, arraigning the administration for its coldness towards the cause of Cuban independence, while allowing gunboats to be fitted out in New York for Spanish use, Cuba, by maintaining a successful resistance for nearly five years, had earned a recognition of belligerent rights, and he hoped that since the government hesitated, the people would take up Cuba's cause and force the government to act. A resolution was adopted expressing sympathy with Cuba, and calling on the government to acknowledge the belligerency if indeed not the independence of Cuba.

Of Public Property.
A meeting of the Board of Managers of the Cape Fear and Deep River Navigation Works, at the Executive Office in Raileigh, on the 3d of June, 1873, the following resolutions were passed:
1. Resolved, That in accordance with the act of the General Assembly, 1869, 1861, chap.
123, it is deemed advisable to sell the interests of the State of North Carolina in the Cape Fear and Deep River Navigation Works.
2. Resolved, That the same be sold in two sections, viz: 1st, from Payetteville to Sharp's Field Dam; 2d, from Sharp's Field Dam, including the same up to the Cape Fear River to the limits of the original charter.
3. Resolved, That the price of their purchase pay one-third of the balance in one cash, and the remainder in three installments, two years from day of sale, the first from said date, and that the same be secured by satisfactory bond, and a lien on the interests purchased. Title not to be made until payment in full.
4. Resolved, That the sale be upon the expressed condition that the respective purchasers shall complete and put in operation, according to the terms of the charter, the portion purchased, as follows, viz: from Payetteville to Sharp's Field Dam, within five years from day of sale, and from Sharp's Field Dam, including the same to Tysor's Mill in Moore county, within three years from said date.
5. Resolved, That H. A. London, Secretary and B. L. Howze, Attorney for the Board, be authorized to make said sale at Lockville, in Chatham county,
ON THE 8TH OF JULY, 1873,

Prospectus for 1873.

SIXTH YEAR.

THE ALDINE.

An illustrated monthly journal, universally admitted to be the handsomest and most valuable in the world. A representative and champion of American taste.

NOT FOR SALE IN BOOK OR NEWS STORES.

THE ALDINE, WHILE ISSUED WITH all the regularity, has none of the ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light and graceful literature, and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other number of volumes, for ten times its cost, and then there are the chromes besides!

ART DEPARTMENT.

Notwithstanding the increase in the price of subscription last fall, when THE ALDINE assumed its present noble proportions and representative character, the demand was more than doubled during the past year, proving that the American public appreciate, and will support, a sincere effort in the cause of Art. The publishers, anxious to justify the ready confidence thus demonstrated, have exerted themselves to the utmost to develop and improve the work; and the plans for the coming year, as unfolded by the monthly issues, will astonish and delight even the most sanguine friends of THE ALDINE.

The publishers are authorized to announce designs from many of the most eminent artists of America. In addition, THE ALDINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success and greatest general interest, avoiding such as have become familiar through photographs, or of any kind. The quarterly plates of John S. Davis' inimitable child-sketches, appropriate for four seasons. These plates, appearing in the issues for January, April, July and October, will be alone worth the price of a year's subscription.

The popular feature of a copiously-illustrated "Christmas" number will be continued. To possess such a valuable epitome of the art world, at a cost so trifling, will command the subscriptions of thousands in every section of the country, but as the usefulness and attractiveness of THE ALDINE can be enhanced, in proportion to the numerical increase of its supporters, the publishers propose to make "assurance doubly sure" by the following unparalleled offer of

PREMIUM CHROMOS FOR 1873:

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE, who pays in advance for the year 1873, will receive without additional charge a set of beautiful oil chromes, after J. H. Hill, the eminent English painter. The pictures entitled "The Village Belle" and "Crossing the Moor" are 14x20 inches—are printed from 25 different plates, requiring 25 impressions and tints to perfect each picture. The same chromes are sold for $30 per pair in the art stores. As it is the determination of the conductors to keep THE ALDINE out of the reach of competition in every department, the chromes will be found correspondingly ahead of any that can be offered by other periodicals. Every subscriber will receive a certificate, over the signature of the publishers, guaranteeing that the chromes delivered shall be equal to the samples furnished the agent, or the money will be refunded. The distribution of these plates, free to the subscribers of a $5 product, will mark an epoch in the history of art, and considering the unprecedented cheapness of the price for THE ALDINE itself, the marvel falls little short of a miracle, even to those best acquainted with the achievements of inventive genius and improved mechanical appliances. (For illustrations of these chromes see Nov. issue of THE ALDINE.)

THE LITERARY DEPARTMENT

will continue under the care of Mr. Richard Henry Stoddard, assisted by the best writers and poets of the day, who will strive to have the literature of THE ALDINE always in keeping with its artistic attractions.

TERMS:

FIVE DOLLARS per annum, in advance, with one chromo. THE ALDINE will hereafter be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rate; cash for subscription must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local agent, without responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the certificate is given, bearing the fact-simile signature of Jas. Sutton & Co. AGENTS WANTED.

Any person wishing to act permanently as a local agent, will receive full and prompt information by applying to JAS. SUTTON & CO., Publishers, No. 58 Maiden Lane, New York.

THE FASHIONABLE SOUVENIR, FOR THE HOLIDAY SEASON. This year will be THE SUPERB VOLUME OF THE ALDINE.

Richly bound in Morocco cloth, assorted colors, beveled boards, red edges, gilt on back and sides—a truly royal volume—a gallery of art engravings that will be at once a great pleasure to the recipient, and a demonstration of the taste of the donor. There are about 300 plates, most of which could not be matched in size or quality in the art stores at a dollar each. They comprise designs by the leading painters and draughtsmen of day, giving the widest range of figure, animal and landscape subjects, combined with pure, light and graceful literature, edited by the poet scholar, Richard Henry Stoddard, forming a most attractive ornament for the parlor or library.

PRICE, $8. Delivered free. Liberal discount to the trade on this volume. Order promptly. JAS. SUTTON & CO., Publishers, No. 58 Maiden Lane, New York. Jan 10 1873

TO THE GETTING-UP OF THE CLUB. When the names of subscribers are required to be written upon each paper of the Club at one Post-office address, ten cents for each copy additional to the above rates.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

In accordance with our last prospectus, the specially reduced rates for 1873, viz: Weekly, per year.....$1 00 Semi-Weekly, per year.....2 50 will be maintained for all new subscribers, and all old subscribers renewing prior to the 15th day of January, 1873, when the above Club rates will take effect.

THE NEW YORK WEEKLY TIMES Will contain Selected Editorials from the Daily Times; General News, Domestic and Foreign; The Proceedings of Congress and the State Legislatures; Full and Interesting Correspondence; Book Reviews; The Choice Literary Selections; while its most prominent feature will be a COMPLETE AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT, with original articles from practical farmers; full reports of the American Institute Farmers' Club; complete weekly market reports; financial, domestic produce, live stock, dry goods and general.

AS A FAMILY PAPER, THE TIMES will have no superior, it will be free from all appeals to vulgar and impure tastes, and may be safely admitted to every domestic circle.

AS A REPUBLICAN JOURNAL, THE TIMES will be devoted, as in the past, to an intelligent and firm support of the Republican Party. Its course in reference to the Tammany Ring, at a time when all the other daily papers in New York obstructed and discouraged its efforts, attests its sincerity in the cause of Reform. The Times stood alone in demanding Reform from 1869 to the close of 1871, and there is no sincere and honest proposal for Reform, in any branch of the Government, which will not be heartily supported by the Times. But it will not confine its assistance to ambitious politicians or demagogues to reach power under false pretenses. It will not encourage defection from the Republican Party, which is still the party of progress, security and national prosperity. It will sustain, with all the force and influence at its command, the principles and policy which have rendered that party so justly famous in our history. It will advocate those measures by which the honor, the peace, and the prosperity of the nation can be best secured and promoted, and will constantly study the wants of the people rather than the wishes of the politicians.

THE NEW YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES Is published every Tuesday and Friday, and contains all the agricultural and literary matter of the Weekly edition, and a full and careful compilation of editorial and news features of the Daily Times.

Terms of the Semi-Weekly Times: One copy, one year, $3; two copies, one year, $5; ten copies, one year, $25—and one extra copy free.

Subscriptions to either of our editions received for a less length of time than one year at yearly rate.

These prices are invariable. Remit in drafts on New York or Post-office Money Orders. If possible, and where neither of these can be procured, send the money in a registered letter. All Post-masters are obliged to register letters when requested to do so, and the system is an absolute protection against losses by mail.

We especially call the attention to the following testimonials of the Paint:

C. P. Knight, Esq.—Dear Sir: I have used Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint on my dwelling last Spring, and am much pleased with it and it looks as well now as when first painted, and consider it a good Paint. Yours, truly, Cresswell P. O., Hartford county, Md., Feb. 6th, 1873.

THE PLAINS, FAUQUIER CO., VA., Feb. 6th, 1873.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Sir: The Paint came safely to hand as ordered—two kegs, five gallons each, and three kegs each. As practice was slack, I did the job myself. Two weeks (not constant work), completed the house two coats. The last coat I applied thick, and it is now generally conceded that for enamel-like hardness, and body, and harmony of colors, there is not a handsomer job in the place. I saved sixty-five dollars by the operation, which is an item just now with Southern people. It should be generally adopted in this State. Any country lad can apply it. I have never dabbled in such stock as testimonials, but I feel so forcibly the great adaptability of your "Enamel Paint" to the wants of our people, in excellency of material, in beauty of color, and in the fact of its being "ready mixed" that I give you free permission, (if it is desirable to you), to make what use you think proper of this letter.

Very respectfully and truly, S. MCGILL, M. D.

TO THE PUBLIC.—It affords me much pleasure to state that in July, 1871, Front Street Theatre was painted inside and out with "Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint," for which C. P. Knight, No. 93 West Lombard Street, is agent, and, to testify to its superiority over any and all other paints for similar use. In no private dwelling can paint possibly be subjected to the very severe test it undergoes at this establishment, where, during our daily cleaning, soap and soda are constantly applied to it, and yet it appears as sound and fresh as when put on. Of the numerous advantages it possesses over other paints, I will only mention its being mixed and ready for use in quantities to suit purchasers, its quick drying properties, which saves much time in the execution of work, and its being perfectly permanent, which saves much time in the execution of work, and its being perfectly permanent, which saves much time in the execution of work.

WM. E. SINN, Front Street Theatre, CHAMBERSBURG, December 10th, 1872.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—The paints we received from you have been applied to several of our own buildings and to those of our friends, and have given entire satisfaction in covering qualities, in gloss, and in adaptability to all kinds of surface of material and we cheerfully recommend it, especially to that class of consumers who have to do with unknown parties, or painters to mix and furnish materials, wherein we have found the most deception.

Yours, truly, JACOB STOFFER & SON.

FROM HON. JOHN WETHERED. Induced to apply your paint, "Bradley's" paint to my house. I have pleasure in stating that it proved highly satisfactory, covering more surface than you promised, is more economical, carries better gloss than ordinary paint, and is freer from disagreeable odor.

Yours, Respectfully, JOHN WETHERED.

C. P. Knight, Esq., Agent for Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint, Baltimore, December 27th, 1872.

I purchased from you what we will cheerfully endorse as the best of any kind we have ever used; its covering qualities are everything desired, drying promptly and with a hard gloss which must, we think, resist the action of all kinds of weather. This is our experience, and we can recommend it with certainty, and intend to use it on all occasions where we desire a good job of work.

Very Respectfully, EMART & QUARTLEY, 270 W. Baltimore St. House, Sign and Freestone Painters. PLEASANTVILLE, HARTFORD CO., MD.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—I am very happy to inform you that your "Patent Enamel Paint" has given entire satisfaction. I put it to the test of my paint I have ever seen used, and recommend it for durability and beauty as paramount to any other.

Very Respectfully, R. DICKEY, M. D. No. 93 W. Lombard Street, Baltimore. MANAGER POST.

QUARANTINE NOTICE.

The following Quarantine Regulations will be in force from and after the 1st of June, 1873, until further notice:

1st. All vessels from Ports South of Cape Fear will come to the Visiting Station near "Deep Water Point," and await the inspection of the Quarantine Physician.

2d. All vessels having sickness on board on arrival, or having had sickness during the voyage, are required to come to the Station for inspection, without regard to the Port from whence they sailed.

3d. Vessels not included as above will proceed to Wilmington without detention.

4th. Pilots are especially enjoined to make careful enquiry, and if not satisfied with the statements of the Captain, or if the vessel is in a filthy condition, they will bring the vessel to the Station for further examination.

5th. Pilots violating the Quarantine laws are subject to forfeiture of their branch Masters of vessels to a fine of Two Hundred ($200) Dollars a day for every day they violate the Quarantine laws, and all other persons are liable for each and every offence.

6th. All vessels subject to visitation under these regulations will set flags in the main rigging—port side.

Unquestionably the best sustained work of the kind in the World.

Harper's Magazine.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS. The ever-increasing circulation of the excellent monthly, proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs. Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no artificial means, but by the force of its own merits.

The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic taste and literary culture that has kept pace with it has not led the editors, but rather the editors to regard it with just complacency. It also entitles it to the great claim upon the public gratitude that it has done good and not evil in the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.

SUBSCRIPTIONS.—1873. TERMS: Harper's Magazine, one year, $4. An extra copy of either the Magazine Weekly, or Bazar, will be supplied for every Club of Five Subscribers at $1 each, in one remittance; or, six copies at $2 00, without extra copy.
